"A Handful of Stars" is a warm-hearted look at friendship and being brave enough to take on challenges, while letting a few things go. The story may be slightly formulaic, but thankfully doesn't always give into typical tropes. The best friend doesn't get upset when a new friend comes on the scene.

Salma, too, is grieving, having lost her own dog and many friends due to her family's frequent moves. Lord links images beautifully: Lily shows Salma how the fluted top of a blueberry resembles a star, and Salma confides that she is comforted knowing that the stars overhead are the same ones shining on her loved ones far away.
