Hearts The concept of turning games around and letting the losers win and the winners lose has been applied to most of the card-game families. It seems to work best with the family of trick-taking games. Hearts (also known as Omnibus Hearts, Black Maria, and Black Lady) is the most successful example of a trick-avoidance game.

The 1 of Hearts Global Prayer Community is a celebration. This must be done with lifted hearts. It's a homecoming for all souls not celebrating what's happening on earth at this time but celebrating divine homecoming. The prayer group is creating a home. This is beyond conversation; it's vibrational.

streamlined quilting techniques, each featuring a heart motif. First, try strip piecing using a variation of the time-honored log cabin design. A pieced heart block replaces the traditional red center block, with interesting detail in the sashing and borders. My second quilt features foundation piecing, using what I call a "mended heart" design.
