This post contains a line by line analysis of the structure of a sample PDF. I wrote it so that I could gain a better understanding of the PDF document. The example PDF is taken from a simpler explanation by Didier Stevens. The rest of the details are filled in by the Adobe PDF Specification. I must admit that much of this post is a gross plagiarism of the PDF Specification and I would describe it merely as a structural change so that a PDF can be explained line by line.

Anatomy of Terror: From the Death of bin Laden to the Rise of the Islamic State by Ali Soufan is a useful book, but suffers from a lack of narrative cohesion. While each of the chapters has a narrow focus, this comes across more as a collection of essays that are aware of what has preceded them, than a book that has its own identity.

Death is the cessation of all biological functions that sustain a living organism. Phenomena which commonly bring about death include aging, predation, malnutrition, disease, suicide, homicide, starvation, dehydration, and accidents or major trauma resulting in terminal injury. In most cases, bodies of living organisms begin to decompose shortly after death.
